To whom it may concern,

This is a professional reference for ELEQT – Part of the Quintessentially Group

Gaicho has had the pleasure of working with ELEQT for the last 3 years, both on their online social media platform as well as several member events in Dubai.

The ELEQT social media platform has given Gaicho the opportunity to access both high end consumers, as well as new corporate clients which benefit Gaicho as brand.

The ELEQT social network in turn has created brand awareness for Gaicho around the world, with a special focus on Dubai, which has created many more ambassadors for our international fine dining brand.

We highly recommend ELEQT as a platform to communicate with highend users, and look forward to continue our relationship with ELEQT in the future.

Regards,

Ross Butler
