

JASON OF BEVERLY HILLS

December 17, 2013

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this professional reference for ELEQT- Part of the Quintessentially Group.

Jason of Beverly Hills recently has had the distinct pleasure of participating in an event hosted by ELEQT.

We were beyond impressed not only with their professionalism but how they really knew how to make sure every attendee was having a blast!

We here at JBH are looking forward to working again with ELEQT in this upcoming year.

JBH highly recommends ELEQT as a platform to communicate with high end users.

Warm Regards.
